CALL: 2001

OVERVIEW

Rebecca specialises in commercial and chancery disputes, both in litigation and arbitration with a particular focus on Company and Insolvency related matters.

Consistently recommended by the legal directories for Company, Insolvency and Commercial Litigation, Rebecca has been described as 'A very persuasive advocate' with 'a brilliant mind' who is 'Excellent both on her feet and on paper'. She is recognised as counsel who 'will go the extra mile for clients' and as being 'fantastic in court'. In 2022 she was awarded 'Chancery Junior of the Year' at the Legal 500 Bar Awards. She was shortlisted for 'Company/Insolvency Junior of the Year' at the Chambers UK Bar Awards 2020 and 'Commercial Litigation-junior of the year' at the Legal 500 Bar Awards 2019.

Rebecca's practice has a particular focus on shareholder disputes and claims concerning the duties of directors and other fiduciaries. She appeared as junior counsel in the Supreme Court in Bilta (UK) Ltd (in liquidation) v Nazir (led by Christopher Parker KC), a leading authority on corporate attribution, illegality, and the extra-territorial effect of the fraudulent trading provisions in the Insolvency Act. Rebecca also has substantial contentious insolvency experience. Notable matters include advising on the Lehman Brothers 'Waterfall' applications and successfully appearing on a contested application to appoint administrators in respect of Force India Formula One.

Rebecca read law at Cambridge (Gonville & Caius) where she was a senior exhibitioner. She was awarded a Bedingfield Scholarship by Gray's Inn. Rebecca has been admitted to the Bar of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court (BVI). She is currently recommended by the Legal 500 in the fields of Commercial Litigation, Company and Insolvency, by Chambers UK for Company and Restructuring/Insolvency, and by Chambers Global for Restructuring/Insolvency.
